Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Washington, Old and New Mr. George F. Schutt, proprietor of The New Ebbitt and National Hotel, recognizing the demand from tourist and student guests for fuller information about Washington than can be had from the ordinary guide books, conceived the idea of compiling a booklet to meet such inquiries. Having assembled much data of old Washington, particularly concerning facts and personages from time to time identified with his hotels, he has been prevented, because of the many demands upon his time, from personally putting his ideas into effect. He, therefore, employed the services of the writer to perform the task for him. This little book aims to give the reader, in concise form, an account of the events leading up to the selection of the site of the National Capital and to briefly trace its growth from ante-bellum days and the period immediately succeeding the Civil War to the present day. Grateful acknowledgment for helpful suggestion is made to the Hon. Robert Wickliffe Woolley, Auditor of the U. S. Treasury for the Interior Department; Chas. Clinton Swisher, Ph. D., LL. D., Professor of History, The George Washington University; and to Mrs. Mary Stevens Beall, Secretary of the Columbia Historical Society.
