.In these poems about love, nature, art, and life, Carole

McDonnell creates evocative poetry that touches the heart, spirit, and mind. Lovers of fairytales and fantasy will also find that The King's Journal of Lost and Secret Things also contains poems by Carole McDonnell which appear in her novels, The Constant Tower, My Life as an Onion, and Wind Follower.

Review by youtube reviewer, Jessica Butler Fry of Talk Story To Me: I have always enjoyed poetry, though much of its technique and finesse passes over my head. The only way I can evaluate it is through personal questions: does it make me feel something, what images does it evoke, and so on? This book of poems was a quiet delight. Given my love of fairy tales, it's no surprise that my favorite section was the first one. The Princess and the Pea as well as The Princess and the Frog were two of my favorites.

McDonnell's Little Red Riding Hood poem was quite a surprising twist. I hadn't even thought...
