Not illustrated. 1856 Excerpt: .the materials shipped to Key West, and the beacon erected last month by the party returning from the Rebecca shoal. LIGHT-HOUSEES IN THE FOURTH DISTRICT. The foregoing report refers to the progress of the works under my charge in the seventh district. On the 13th of April last, on the eve of my departure for the Rebecca shoal as stated above, I was directed to relieve Major Hartman Bache, topographical engineers, of the charge of certain works in the fourth district, several of which were at that period in active prosecution. In submitting, therefore, a report upon the progress of these works during the past year, it will be understood that all transactions prior to the above date were under the superintendence of that officer. Light-house on Cross Ledge shoal, Delaware bay.--When I took charge of this work, the designs for the whole structure, with the exception of the lantern, were matured and approved. The materials for the ice-breaker and for the foundation-pile frame-work of the house had been manufactured. Progress had also been made in the foundry upon the other portions of the work. Some time was consumed in searching for a suitable vessel to be employed in the construction, and the necessity for adapting her to the proposed work caused additional delay, so that the party organized did not take the field until the beginning of July. They were assiduously employed from that time until the fourth of October; and being favored with a...
