Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Later that afternoon Rick was sitting in Betsey and Zack was teaching him the controls and what they made the plane do. And he planned on drilling him in this kind of instruction until he knew it without thinking about it. "Remember, no one learned to fly in one day. Just like anything worth the effort, it takes practice, practice and more practice." Zack said as the youngster stared back at him totally confused. "Lets go flying." This brought a big smile on Ricks face. "Ok, lets go!" he said excited at the thought. Zack went out in front of the plane and grabbed the propeller and yelled, "Ignition." Rick looked down at the instrument panel and flipped the ignition switch on, then raised his hand up with his thumb up. Zack gave the prop a pull and the motor roared to life. Rick had the feeling that the motor was going a little too fast, but figured Zack would fix that when he got in. Rick watched as Zack pulled the wheel chocks out, but when he backed up he tripped over Mikes water bowl. Whenever Mike got thirsty and the bowl was empty the dog would carry it over to Zack to be refilled. The men were so busy they didnt see this happen, so when Zack tripped over it, needless to say they were all surprised. Meanwhile the plane was rolling up the drive towards the house. Rick looked back at Zack and was calculating whether he would catch up in time. Or would the plane hit the house first. It looked to Rick like Zack was going to lose...
