Dante is welcomed by his ancestor, Cacciaguida. -- Cacciaguida tells of his family, and of the simple life of Florence in the old days. A Benign will, wherein the love which righteously inspires always manifests itself, as cupidity does in the evil will, imposed silence on that sweet lyre, and quieted the holy strings which the right hand of heaven slackens and draws tight. How unto just petitions shall those substances be deaf, who, in order to give me wish to pray unto them, were concordant in silence Well is it that he endlessly should grieve who, for the love of thing which endures not eternally, despoils him of that love. As, through the tranquil and pure evening skies, a sudden fire shoots from time to time, moving the eyes which were at rest, and seems to be a star which changes...
