NYRB Classics, 2008. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "This excellent collection of [Du Maurier]'s out-of-print and previously unpublished tales is recommended for all collections." -- Library Journal "That whooshing sound you hear is your mind being sucked into the brilliant black depths of Daphne du Maurier's Gothic imagination, the instant you begin reading the eponymous first story in Don't Look Now . . . Novelist Patrick McGrath's introduction reacquaints us with the intense, eccentric, psychologically deft du Maurier, a master storyteller with a touch as smooth as a raven's wing." -- O, the Oprah Magazine "This author was unique in how she set people's attempts to be civilized and fair against the ravages of nature and the deceptions of intimacy--both of which can attack from within as well as without." -- Louisville Eccentric Observer (LEO Weekly) "This new collection of her macabre tales, which features many unavailable for years, is an ideal treat for Halloween." -- Thicket Du Maurier "was indeed a serious writer, a brilliant innovative practitioner of her craft, as these stories consistently demonstrate. Readers of these wonderful stories will go to places and feelings they never dreamed of - all because Daphne du Maurier possessed such an amazing imagination and such a capacity to make it all seem credible in her sturdy prose." - - Washington Times ""Don't Look Now" has remarkable sexual tension and is reminiscent of Patricia Highsmith in some ways, while "The Blue Lenses" has a central idea that's one of the most original and scary you'll ever come across. She's a writer we think we know but don't really -- hugely underrated." -- Los Angeles Times " Don't Look Now is a stunning collection of du Maurier's particular brand of intricately plotted story. The mesmerizing title...
