Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from School Grounds and Play There are many people of middle age in America still who do not believe in play. They grew up without playgrounds themselves, and they do not realize how greatly conditions have changed during the intervening years. When I was a boy in southern Michigan the school session in our country community was only four months a year. Under these conditions the school may rightfully give its entire energy to scholastic subjects, and trust to the children binding time for play an industrial training during outside hours. But as the school takes over more and more of the child s time and energy, and grows from a 4-month term to a 9 or 10 month term, with a tendency toward a yet longer year, and a yet longer day, it becomes necessary that the school shall make provision for all sides of the child s nature. There are many men of the old school who believe that work is the proper method of developing manly qualities in boys. They still proclaim their...
