On the island would be built a great dock and terminal system, and the proposers of the project argue also that it would yield the State of New Jersey several hundred thousand dollars in additional annual taxes. The plan as presented, according to Hon. J. Spencer Smith, Chairman of the New Jersey Board, would involve the expenditure of about sixty million dollars. The water inside Robbins reef is mostly shallow, and as in the case of the Governor s Island extension, this plan might result not only in the creation of valuable additional land area, but also in controlling channel depths in its vicinity. IN MEMORIAM Fred. W. Taylor, former president of Charles M. Taylor Sons, Inc., -hipping brokers and steamship line managers in Philadelphia. Mrs. Frederick W. Donnelly, wife of the Mayor of Trenton, died suddenly pril 21st. To the Mayor and his children we are sure of giving expression to the wishes of every member of the Association in extending heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow and bereavement. Mrs. Donnelly attended most of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways conventions and had made herself known and beloved by all. She was that fine type of American womanhood which, while placing home and family above ambition and preferment, yet exerted wherever-he went an influence for good and force in behalf of whatever movement she had before her. All who were privileged to know her will share in the feeling...
