Whatever you do, do not let them know your true identity! Noble whispered to the young prince. Remember, I am your brother Henry and you are John. Everything had changed in an instant. One minute they were enjoying the serenity of a ride through the forest on a beautiful autumn morning, and the next, they were surrounded by a ring of arrows pointed straight at them. Ambushed! Fear and guilt flooded over Noble. How could he have allowed this to happen He, whose charge it was to protect Prince William above all else! Now it appeared they were in the hands of a gang of fierce criminals and what could he do Courage and skill he had, but he was only one knight. To the edge of a deep ravine the men led them. Noble suddenly realized where they were. He had never been there before, but there was no doubt in his mind. He had heard frightening tales from the time of his childhood of this place, a secret place of perpetual twilight and...
