

Grace Walking (Paperback)

By Carlena Sue Biggs

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a true story of how destruction can occur with just the flip of a finger on a latch. No one knows how quickly a persons life can spiral downward when evil walks into their home.until it happens to them. Anger can cause a person to do impulsive things but hate mixed with demonic influences can cause a person to try to kill someone they claim to love. This is a story of such people and how God turned everything around for His glory. Who would ever have guessed that anyone would be so diabolical as to stab a person in the back.literally. The wounds were severe, so severe that the life of this mother and her children would be changed forever. Complete recovery did not look favorable. In fact the future looked very bleak. Life in a wheelchair, if she lived. Loss of partial use of one hand and scars as reminders that one little movement could make the difference between living a normal life filled with healthy physical activities or becoming a cripple confined to...
