These seventeen represented six different religious faiths, of whom but two were originally Congregationalists. From that moment the tide of union, based in love, has risen. Their hearts are full as they take in the beauty of the little temple, a gift of love; as they think of the new life manifest in the district; as they catch glimpses of the future of service and victory; and their voices rise in praise and gladness. They have gathered pledges of above $400 toward a pastor s salary, and look longingly toward the day when they shall, as a flock, be led in and out by the under-shepherd of His appointing. MRS. DEAN S VISION It was Sabbath morning, a beautiful bright spring morning, with cloudless sky, warm sun, and balmy air, wooing from the bosom of mother earth the tiny plants and springing grass....
