Ashley, at Memorial Hall, Toledo, Ohio, June 2, 1890 Mr. President, and Ladies and Gentlemen: I need not tell you how welcome your cordial greeting is to me to-night. You can all see that. In again meeting so many of my old friends face to face, I remember with pride the greetings which I have received on like occasions, when making public addresses here at home. And as I stand here and recognition follows recognition, my pulse beats are quicker, and I am glad that I accepted the invitation of your committee. At first I felt that I could not take the time, and I certainly should not have done so but for the worthy object which your committee represented to me you had in hand. The surroundings in this hall; the beautiful display of flags - with the quartet singing, and the thoughts and emotions of the hour, stir my heart to its very depths, and carries me back to...
