Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Maryland, 1887 It affords me great satisfaction to state that at the session of the last Legislature these facts and views were urged upon the Committees on Ways and Means and on Militia, by officers representing the various commands, resulting in a recommendation of a liberal and generous appropriation, which met with the hearty approval of both houses and the Executive. At the same time it was earnestly urged that, in place of the old militia law which did not meet the requirements of the service, other important amendments, as suggested, should be enacted. In this view, also, the Legislature concurred, and the law, consequently, as it now stands is all that is desired. It is therein provided, amongst other things, that officers and men shall be sworn into the service of the State for a term of three years, and that there shall be held a biennial encampment for instruction and discipline. The total force of the State, as limited by law, consists of thirty-eight...
